HILL: Yep, that's right.

FARRINGTON: So, going that way is, freeway wise, is not bad at all. ANDREA was late this morning. Not me, how about that?

HILL: Yeah.

FARRINGTON: And so ah, so they kind of threw our time off. Because I was there on time. If we'd gotten started on time, I would have been finished by now. But it threw me off a little bit. Threw us both off. But that's okay. She needed it cause she didn't. She would have to really figure out how to get around and get everything done. They had to take the, ah, some kind of paperwork back out on the construction site. But she had to get it notarized first, so we had to find a notary. And D'ANGELO called and wanted to know if they put the, issued the right amount and I told him. And he started right

1 then. ...LAUGHS...

2 HILL: I told you, I knew it.

3 FARRINGTON: Put ANDREA on the phone. ...LAUGHS...

4 I said, stop.

5 HILL: I knew it. I knew it.

6 FARRINGTON: So, she ended up issuing another one

7 from ah, for 9,500 or something like that. So, ah

8 HILL: Poor, poor ANDREA.

9 FARRINGTON: She, she and she sounded a little

10 disturbed at first about it. She's like ah, that is

11 not the amount that we discussed. And I don't know

12 what he told her. As to why they're doing it. I

13 don't know what he told her. But they printed out a real

14 nice thank you card for me.

15 HILL: Oh, they did?

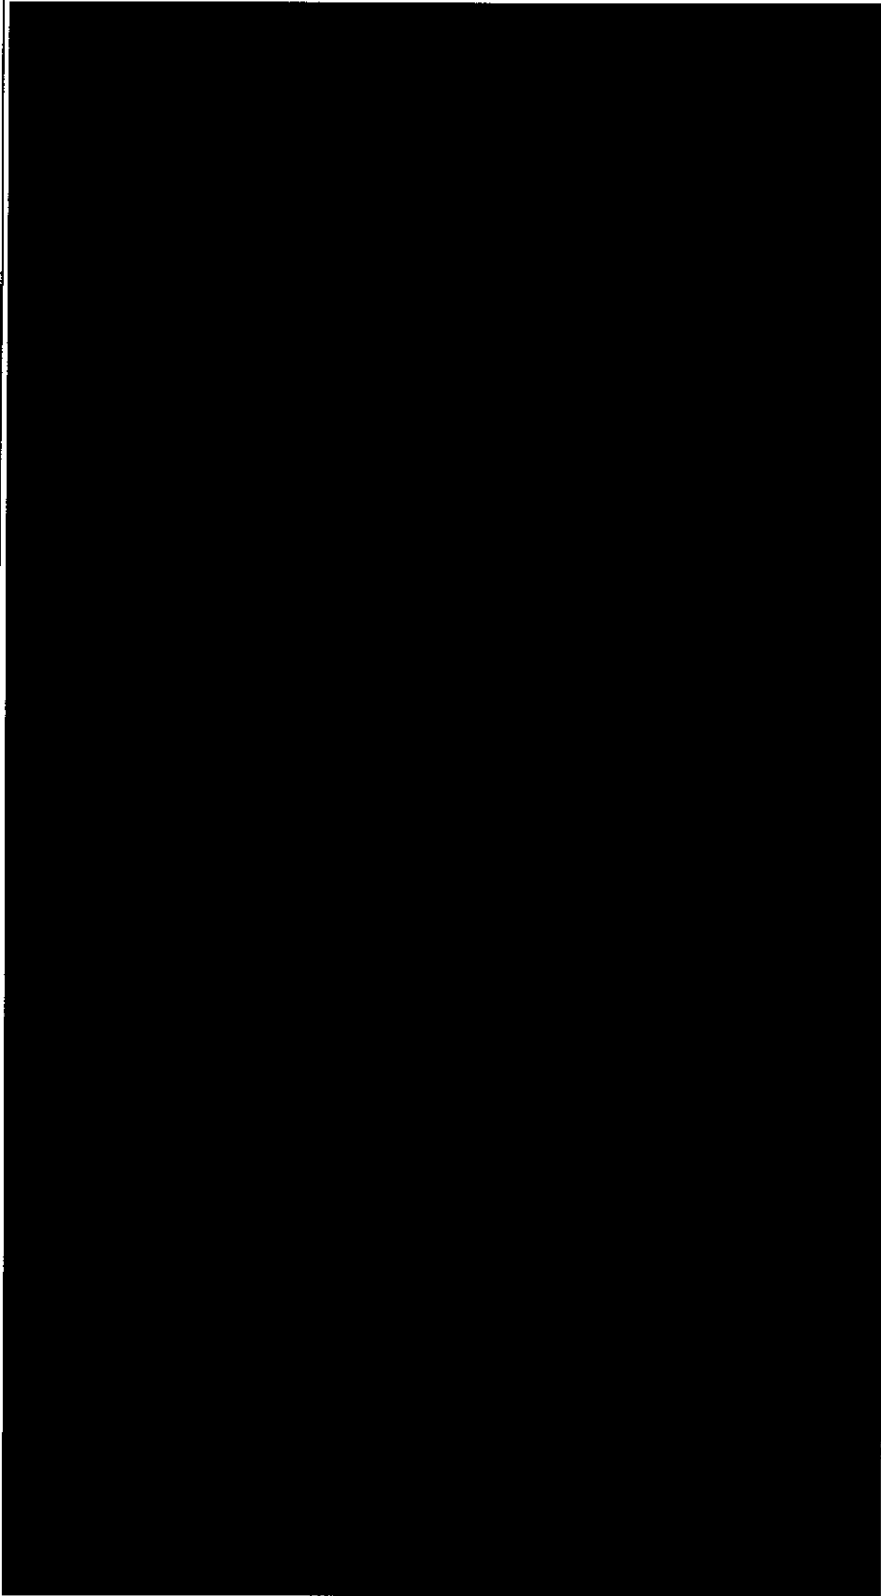

16 FARRINGTON: And well, I said oh well, okay. Y'all

17 quite welcome, y'all welcome. I'm not too. I'm getting

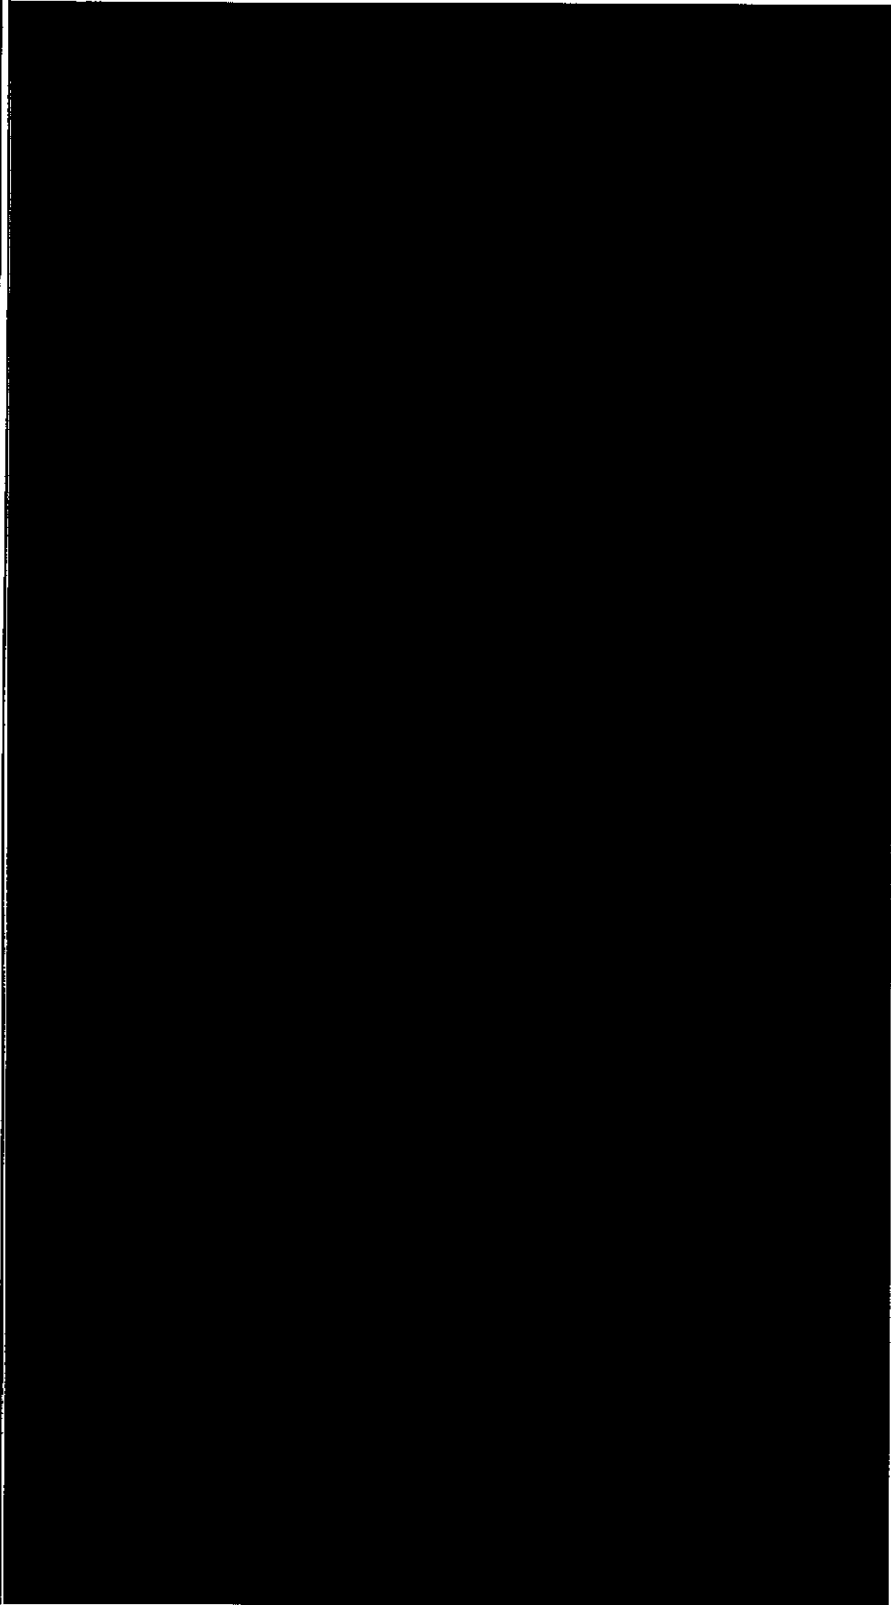

18 closer.
